

"ARCHITEKTENTALK" AT NYMPHENBURG

MÜNCHEN

The Nymphenburg Porcelain Manufactory "Porzellanmanufaktur Nymphenburg", is the porcelain manufactory of the Bavarian crown. Since the 1761 the company is situated into a cavalier house in front of the royal palace at Nymphenburg in Munich, capital of Bavaria, where it is still located today.

NYMPHENBURG ROYAL PALACE FRONT VIEW

This amazing location is known to have been the working place of artists and sculptors like Hanns Goebel and Franz Anton Bustelli. The Nymphenburg Palace also accommodates the Nymphenburg Porcelain Museum (the Bäuml Collection).

NYMPHENBURG FIGURE

LUTING SHOP

Completely handmade, using techniques passed on and preserved from generation to generation. The manufactory's master workshops produce avantgarde and tailor-made designs from four centuries, created right up to the present day by the most distinguished artists, architects and designers.

ARCHITEKTENTALK

ARCHITEKTENTALK

Respect for traditions of craftsmanship and the artistry of historical eras, rigorous research, distinctive design, uncompromising production values and personal service. These distinctive values always linked Nymphenburg and G.Bonomi & Figli in a common and strong friendship. The last 22nd January Nymphenburg and G.Bonomi & Figli organized, in the beautiful context of the Nymphenburg Palace, an exclusive "Architektentalk" dedicated to the Fluted Series presentation.

FLUTED SERIES

Rhett Butler, E.R. Butler & Co. founder, and Andrea Bonomi, G.Bonomi & Figli CEO, personally introduced Fluted Series project, sharing with Nymphenburg guests all the details have contributed to the birth of this revolutionary hardware classification system. From Fluted Series inception to its official EU and US launch, recent event which established the official start of G. Bonomi & Figli and E.R. Butler & Co. exclusive partnership.

download
PDF

send an e-mail

visit
web site